A

Abstracts, 78, 194, 310, 417, 522, 652

Acupuncture, pain and, 62

Adeno-tonsillectomy, cardiac dysrhythmias observed in, 401

Adler, Gerald R.: Electrical Safety in the Operating Room, 619

Adrenergic receptors, current concepts on the pharmacodynamics of, 272

Aerosol therapy, administration of, 373; techniques and equipment, 373

Alphadione, see Althesin

Althesin, new induction agent (abstract), 423

American Association of Nurse Anesthetists: AANA and the legislative process, 351; annual meeting, 296; approved list of schools of the AANA council on accreditation, 567; continuing education: a concept for acceptance, 567; first independent annual meeting, 296; guest editorial, 567; individual involvement—the cornerstone to professionalism, 239; mandatory continuing education—a possibility?, 123; officers, 2, 122, 238, 350, 462, 566; post office, statement of ownership, 678; quality assurance—what does it mean to CRNA's?, 16; schools on probation and schools that are closing, 105, 220, 332, 445, 542, 684

Amnesia, diazepam, 180; morphine-scopolamine, 180

Analgesia, nitrous oxide (abstract), 82

Anesthesia, blepharoplasty and rhytidectomy, 652; cardiac disease, 147; implications of pseudocholinesterase in, 288; infections associated with the administration of, 166; joint replacement, 263; medical problems which influence choice of (abstract), 417; myasthenia gravis and its implications to, 513; nitrous oxide (abstract), 82; nitrous oxide/oxygen (abstract), 313; nitrous oxide volumes absorbed and excreted in children (abstract), 199; nursing process, 397; obstetrical, 485; pacemaker implants, 405; papaveretum for/compared to morphine (abstract), 653; propranolol (abstract), 195; relation to obesity (abstract), 78; spinal cord injuries, 300; thyrotoxic patient, 630; transcervical thymectomy in myasthenia gravis (abstract), 196

Anesthesia equipment, disinfection of (abstract), 81

Anesthetic gas evacuator, for pediatrics, 638

Approved List of Schools of the AANA Council on Accreditation, 654

Ativan, see Lorazepam

B

Bleeding disorders, pathophysiology of, 598

Blepharoplasty and rhytidectomy, A technic of general anesthesia for (abstract), 652
